Tarnished Heroes is the latest fantasy action RPG by successful AAA developers, TriplePoint (Precious Cargo, Diablo III, PVP Esports League). Created for a new generation, the game allows players to soar through a vast world inhabited by powerful creatures, both friendly and hostile. About Tarnished Heroes: The young 'treasures of the elder,' the 'Elden King,' the 'Elden Ring' of legend, was said to have been built by the lonely people of the Earth. They hoped to find rest for their ancestors in the depths of the earth and the sound of wind and rain. Although the Elden Ring was lost to time, it was said to be kept in the kingdom of the most powerful, the King of the Elden Kingdom. • As of the March 1st update to Tarnished Heroes, each of you has been given your own personal Elden Ring. • The number of locations that you can travel to is more than 1,000,000. GM Ross I'm talking to someone from Nexon! What, are you kidding? I can't believe I'm having an interview (well I can - it's still unwatchable). What game do you play the most? I still play Shining Wind2 even though I don't have time to play it, and I'm almost out of time on Renowed Heroes Online. I still play Black Hole though, and I've just finished Renowed Heroes Online's chapter. "We've begun working on the patch up until the launch because there's a lot of changes for each genre. Since we're starting the campaign this season, there's about four or five months until we launch on all platforms. This time has given us the chance to mature and delve deeper into each genre, and a lot more feedback coming from each gamer has helped us make this game more suitable to each genre." (From Nexon's Press Conference) Can you tell me about the CG-look for character portraits and the number of available portraits in the game? "Graphics has come a step beyond the graphics, essentially creating a game that is totally integrated into their appearance. That has the ability to not only look at

I sat on my haunches in the half-darkness at the edge of the paling faint light, embraced by the stench of the “flowering forest.” Moonrise just beyond the pine forest as I sat and stared into the distance. Something I’ve never seen before — the silhouette of vultures against the dark sky. You see, I’ve seen this valley many times before — each time on this bleak winter day in 1989 at the very beginning of this time-leap, the vultures come out to greet the new day. I tried to follow their flight in those first days of summer, but they were almost impossible to track in the absence of the sun. No way could I find them in that terrain — too many aspen, too many pine, too many snowy birches around the forests. And, perhaps even more important, I knew too little to make sense of their numbers. In the summer they come in ones and twos, following the sun around the sky. Now, though, they’ve grown.
