As the leader of a group of travelers, the leader of the wayfarers—the Elven people—was called upon to protect a young woman by the name of Elward. After the couple safely crossed a dangerous river, their group of wayfarers discovered a dark castle. Elward, trapped and wounded, called out his rescuer and promised to repay their kindness with aid. The leader, however, asks the young couple to wait a moment... he will come back, and bid them farewell before heading to the castle. An unexpected turn of events occurred—a huge monster called out from the darkness and hurtled towards the travelers! And the monster had a bloodthirsty grin on its face... As the leader battles the powerful monster and the young couple struggle with their injuries to escape, a horrifying fear threatens to consume them—the monster is going to eat them. The leader's resolve falters as he realized that they, alone, could not defeat the monster. He sent out a call for help, summoning the spirits of the cursed lands to fight alongside them. With three spirits now on their side, the three prepared to face the monster—a shadowy figure loomed over them, aiming a huge sword at the young couple... and the leader shouted a final farewell.
