With Jacob functioning as the expert negotiator, Baruch as the planner and leader, the two of them both bring different skills to the negotiations. We are proud to be a partner to the event. Please see below for a schedule of what's happening at the event. Jacob's 40 years of experience in high tech and entertainment have served him well in the tech industry. He was a manager at Blackberry where he hired and fired more than 100,000 employees. Jacob and his wife Faye are proud parents of four beautiful children. For over four decades, Baruch has built his reputation in property management in New York City. A son of Holocaust survivors, Baruch has become a modern day hero, as he has overcome the stigma of his family's history to overcome his own personal circumstances to become the owner and manager of three distinguished apartment communities. He lives in Kew Gardens, Queens with his wife Felicia and their two children. Tickets are available for all participants. Tickets include: Arrival at our New York City Hotel for this special event Quick roundtables on topics selected by Jacob and Baruch Our Thank You Gift There will be free valet parking for those who arrive after 6 pm (if available). Final Call for Participants Please submit an Expression of Interest by Tuesday, August 2nd.Q: Should I use a different full-screen mode than F11? Should I use a different full-screen mode than F11?
